EXPERIENCE

Career Transition: Concept Art → Generative AI — Berlin — Jun 2025 – Present

Explored frontend coding, game engines and AI workflows; settled on generative AI in 2026.

- Krospi — three 9:16 spec spots for a fictional German crisp brand. Brand book, beat sheets, characters kept consistent across shots; production time down from 7 days to 3.
- VARMR — 20-second UGC-style spot for a fictional insulated flask. Category research first, claim kept within category norms, AI use labelled.
- HALDE — three sets of AI stills for a fictional alpine skincare brand, from e-commerce shots to a launch key visual, held to one look through a shared material board.
- More on the portfolio: Ding (45-second AI spec ad), Unreal Engine 5 car configurator, this website (built with AI-assisted coding).
